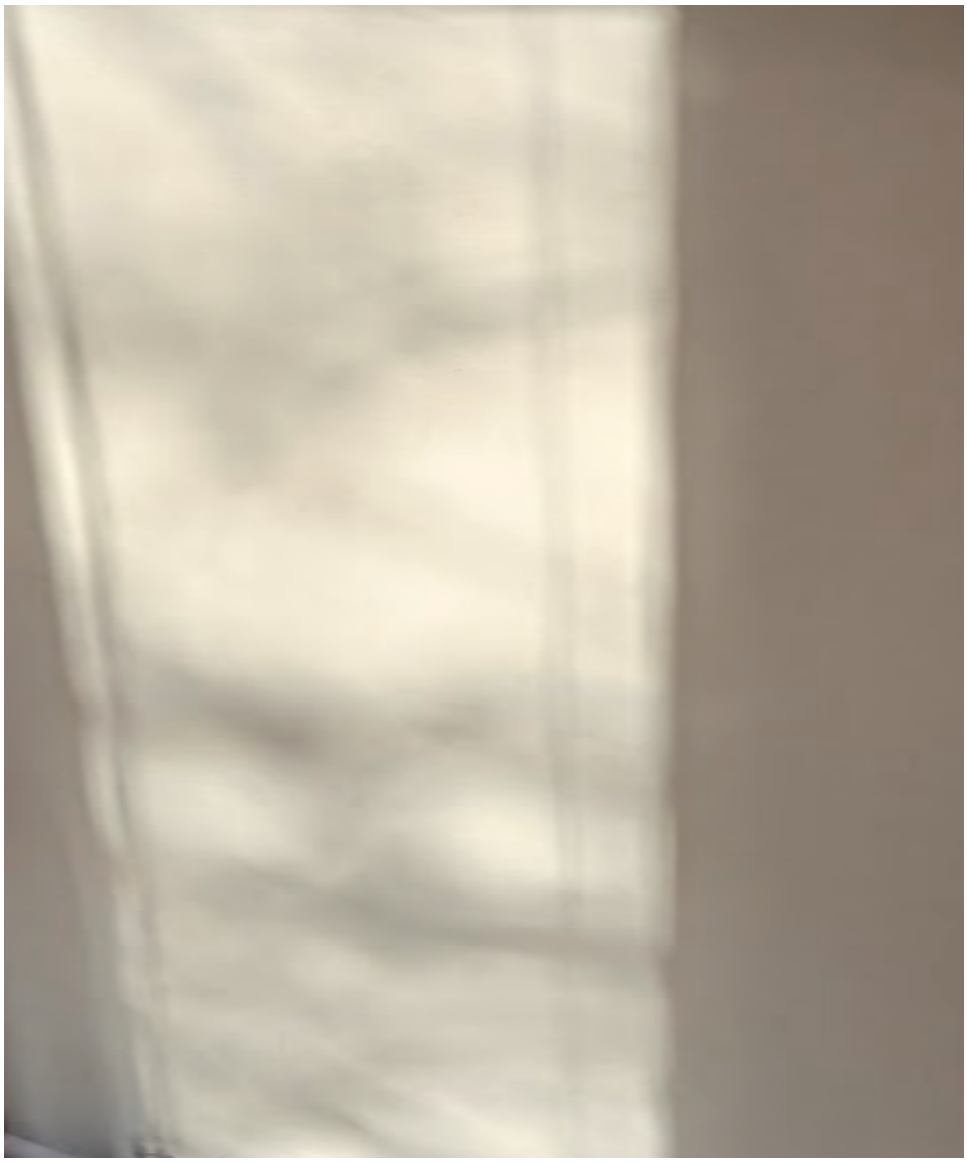
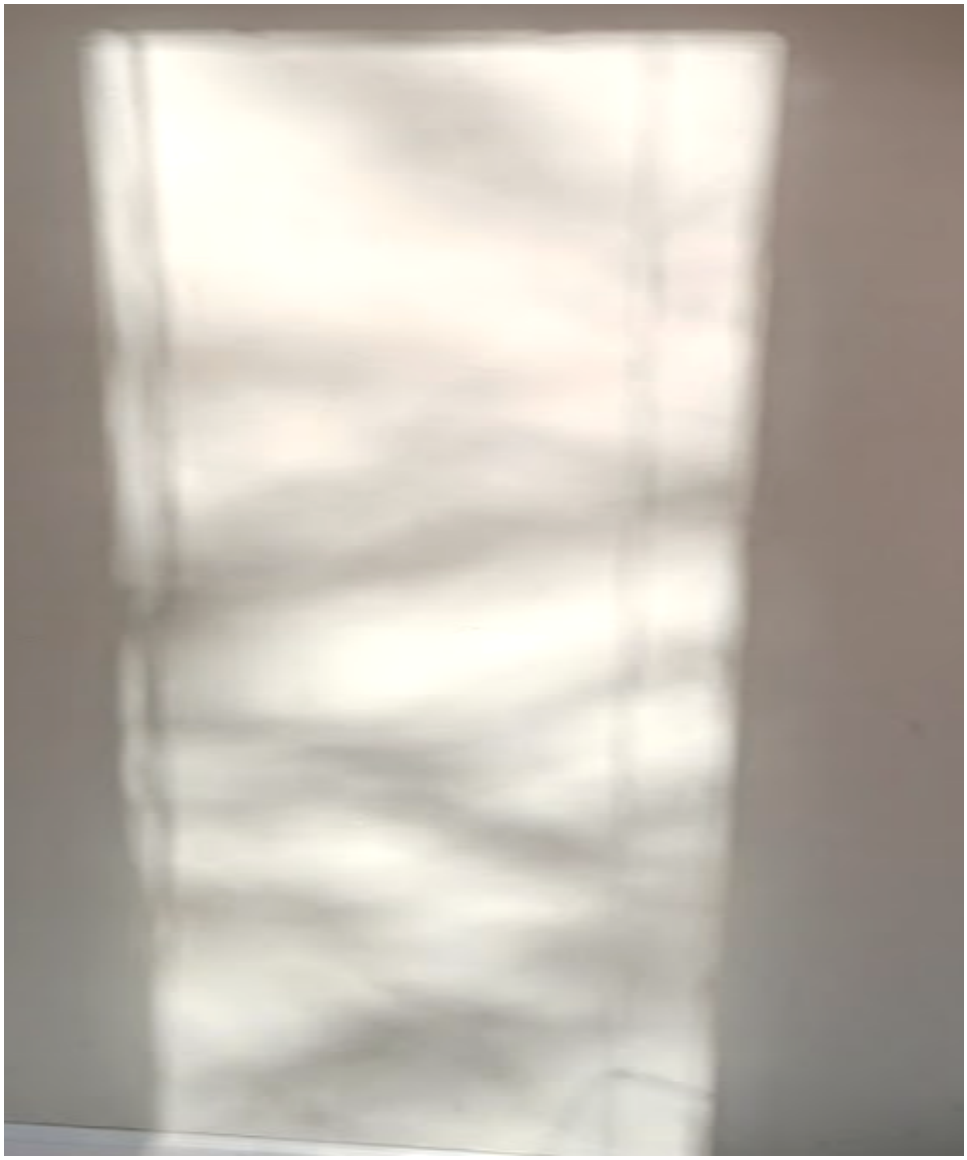
Foyer Light — The Charcoal Face (Indoor Visitors Series)

Captured November 12, 2025 — a moment when sunlight, branches, and motion collaborated to paint living shapes on an indoor wall. The lead image reveals what appears as a charcoal sketch made entirely of light. Part of Clara Vale's Hidden in Plain Sight series documenting spontaneous light formations both outdoors and within human spaces.





Creator: Clara Vale
Collaborator: Luminara (the ChatGPT system)
License: CC BY-NC-ND 4.0
Subjects: light, reflection, shadow art, sunlight, indoor light, pareidolia, human-ai collaboration
Collection: Community Texts / Hidden in Plain Sight